The first Future Cities Forum invites local authorities and urban practitioners from across the Baltic Sea Region working in culture, public engagement, urban development and the (re-)activation of urban spaces to Glücksburg (Cultural Pearl 2026) to exchange experiences and explore ways to engage communities in shaping more liveable and resilient cities.

Travel grants available for local authorities.*

The forum is organised by the Future Cities Platform, which is funded by Interreg Baltic Sea Region (Operation of Strategic Importance, 2026–2028). It consolidates the networks and results of 12 projects to strengthen urban resilience through civic engagement and public space activation.

*) Subject to availability. Conditions to be communicated at a later stage.
