

BALTIC SEA REGION
YOUNG
PLANNERS'
CONTEST

Liene Gaujeniete, spatial planning expert, VASAB Secretariat
VASAB Webinar 07/09/2020

in a nutshell

→ Initiated by VASAB (Swedish chairmanship)

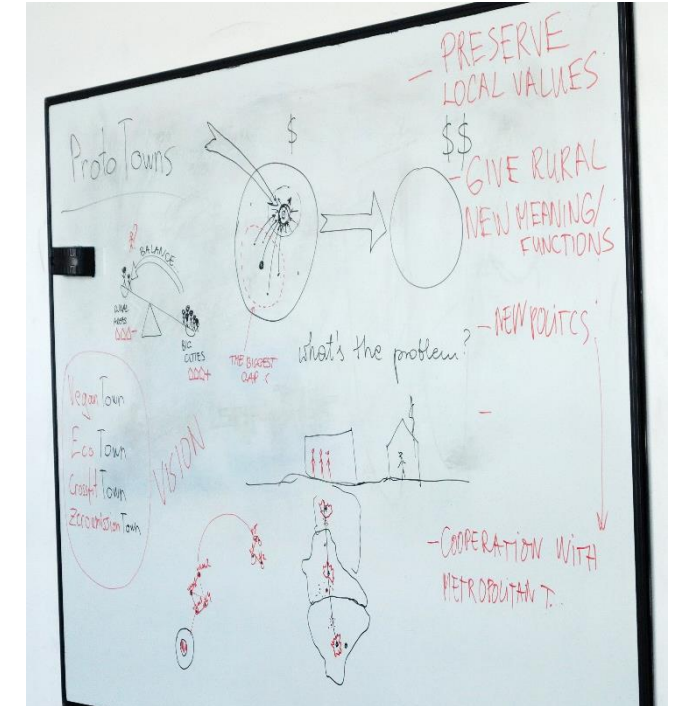

🎯 26 – 29 August, 2019
Poznan, Poland

Funded and supported by Swedish institute

SI.

3 partners:

- Boverket (lead)
- VASAB Secretariat
- Adam Mickiewicz University
in Poznan

4 days

34 participants

6 mentors

LV, DE, RU, PL, SE

8 teams

8 ideas

Hard work (day&night)

Heatwave

Participants under the microscope

16

18

Avg. age 27,8

Poland
Lithuania
Canada Denmark
Latvia
Germany
Finland India Russia
Yemen Belarus
Egypt Albania Ethiopia
Sweden
Estonia

science
Entrepreneurship
Transport Spatial
Environmental development
Doctor Mechanical MSP
Linguistics Project Veterinary Transportation Nutrition Banking designer Architect studies medicine planner Communications Medical Management
Engineer Finance Interior
Architecture
Biomedicine Engineering Politics
Teaching planning
Geography Cultural Human rights Design Railway crosscultural encounters communication Geoinformation Urban Regional
Landscape international

Themes

Improving Accessibility

- ● ● → develop socio-cultural transport hubs for improved liveability in urban areas
- ● ● → BSR in which any door-to-door travel would take 3 hours
- ● ● → universal design principles in ensuring accessibility and unified transport and ticketing system

Response to Climate Change

-  Transformation to food system provided by plant-based proteins

Demographic Changes

-  rural areas can find their star by elaborating a strategy how can declining areas can create place-based visions
-  vivid and flourishing rural areas by creating a mobile fleet that would deliver basic services

Maritime Spatial Planning

-  quota system, ranking depending on how much pressures to the environment is caused
-  until 2050 Baltic Sea and its coastal area would be governed as a united entity

Outcomes: <https://vasab.org/ypc/contest-results/>

BALTIC SEA REGION
YOUNG
PLANNERS'
CONTEST

