

Facts:

- Association was founded in 2002
- 111 members today – working in public sector (local governments or ministries), private (consultants) or third sector (NGOs) as well as academics or other researchers (universities)
- Since 2014 EASP issues the occupational qualifications for spatial planners in Estonia
- From 2009 full member of European Council of Town Planners (ECTP)

Main objectives:

- to elaborate and promote best spatial planning practices;
- develop inner Estonian cooperation;
- mediate empirical and theoretical information between different specialists in varied fields and planning levels;
- enable regular communication platform;
- systemization and spreading of planning knowhow.

Activities:

- Conferences, seminars
- Regular webinars
- Annual summer gatherings
- Study trips abroad
- Quarterly newsletters

Contact: info@planeerijad.ee

EESTI PLANEERIJATE ÜHING
ESTONIAN ASSOCIATION OF SPATIAL PLANNERS

Agnes Lihtsa

EASP - Member of the Board
Land Use and Spatial Planning Policy Department
Ministry of Economic Affairs and Communication - Advisor